A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

REMAINS IDENTIFIED.

Theodore S. Whitmore, an ex-convict, was locked up in the Harrison, N. J., jail last night, after half a dozen persons had identified the body of the woman found in Lump Black Swamp the day after Christmas as that of his wife, Lena Elizabeth Whitmore.

A private detective, after several days' work, found that the red dress which had been ripped off the murdered woman, was sold by Oppenheim and Collins, in Fulton street, Brooklyn, and delivered by them to a furnished-room house on Adams street, Brooklyn, kept by Mrs. Whitmore. She had been missing, it was learned, since 4 o'clock on Christmas Day.

Then it was discovered that Mrs. Bessie Schmitter, of New York, was a sister of Mrs. Whitmores. The police took Mrs. Schmitter to the Harrison morgue yesterday. The instant she saw the body she said it was her sister. She identified the red dress and the furs positively. Her husband, Michael, was equally certain, and a friend of the family, Mrs. Edith Mooney, said at the same time there could be no doubt that it was Mrs. Whitmore.

Mrs. Schmitter said that Whitmore, who is at present motorman on the Third Avenue Elevated Railroad, New York, running a shuttle train between Chatham Square and the Brooklyn Bridge at night, married her sister, Lena Salter, fifteen years ago in Albany. She said that Whitmore ill treated his wife constantly, and had beaten her at times so that her body was black and blue, Mrs. Schmitter declared that Whitmore once said to his wife:

"Lena, if I should kill you some time they'd only arrest me on a charge of insanity."

William B. Salter, a baker of Schenectady, N. Y., and Mrs. William Hughes, who lives in the same place, positively identified pictures of the woman whose murdered body was found in the swamps of Harrison, N. J., as those of a sister, Mrs. Theodore S. Whitmore, of Brooklyn. Mrs. Whitmore, whose maiden name was Lena Salter, was about thirty-five years of age.

During their residence in Schnectady, according to statements made yesterday by the brother and sister of the dead woman, Whitmore and his wife quarreled frequently, largely because of the husband's dissipated habits.

COUNTESS WANTS DIVORCE.

The failure of another alliance of English nobility with American wealth became public in London yesterday afternoon, when the Countess of Yarmouth, who was Alice Thaw, of Pittsburg, a daughter of Mrs. William Thaw and a sister of Harry K. Thaw, whose second trial for the murder of Stanford White will begin next Monday in New York city, applied to the divorce court for an annulment of her marriage to the Earl of Yarmouth as was stated in yesterday's Gazette.

The court has ordered that the proceedings be held in camera, and the papers are being kept secret. The only inkling obtainable of the charges preferred is a statement to the effect that the nature of the medical evidence to be given makes a public hearing inadvisable.

The Countess of Yarmouth is staying at Park Hall, near Evesham, Worcestershire, a magnificent country seat she has leased, decorated and refurnished with lavish expenditure. She declines to comment on the case.

It has been well known for two years that the domestic affairs of the Yarmouths were most unhappy. The earl's companions and his manner of living were such that he could not give his wife the position in society she had a right to expect. She supplied immense sums to defray her husband's extravagances, and her friends say she has conducted herself with dignity throughout the troubles resulting from the unhappy marriage and her brother's difficulties.

Kodol is the best remedy known today for dyspepsia, indigestion and all troubles arising from a disordered stomach. It is pleasant, prompt and thorough. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

The unconscious bodies of a man and woman were found lying on the ground in Grant Park, Chicago, last evening by people attracted by two revolver shots that were fired in rapid succession. The woman is Mrs. Ruby C. Piszak, wife of William Piszak, a State bank examiner, who lives on Lake avenue. She is shot just beneath the heart, and is in a serious condition.

Charles Gilbert Brockett, a department store employe, was the man, and he died shortly after reaching St. Luke's Hospital, where both were hurried by the police. A letter found in the man's pocket told the story. It read:

Dear Sadie and De Witt: Put Ruby and I side by side. Our act is one of pure love. BERT.

This is supposed to be for Brockett's sister and her husband, who live in Davenport, Iowa.

Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They promptly relieve backache and weak back. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

WOMAN ATTACK BOARD

Fifty women of Kirlin, Ind., headed a mob of indignant citizens last night that called upon the school board while its three members were in session, and demanded their resignation, presenting a petition at the same time from 158 property owners that the board step down and out. The board voted to postpone consideration of the petition indefinitely, and Mrs. Harry Cost, leader of the women, denounced the members in unmeasured terms. As the crowd reached the street Mr. Williams, one of the board, appeared at the window, and was knocked down and badly injured with a brack-bat. The people of the village wish the board to resign and turn the school interests over to the township trustees in order to have a new schoolhouse built in the corporate limits.

SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 4, 1908.

JOHN BARTRAM, mayor of Fort Gay, W. Va., was shot and mortally wounded Thursday night by Samuel Kinser, a prominent democratic politician. Bartram was a candidate for re-election, and the election was held Thursday. While the returns were coming in at the city hall a dispute arose over certain methods employed during the day's voting. Bartram and Kinser came to blows. During the altercation Kinser drew a pistol and fired the fatal shot. Such instances as the above show the ferocity often exhibited by men of rival political camps. There is nothing more sad than the bad blood engendered during exciting campaigns. Scurrilous stories are circulated against candidates by the satellites of their opponents and bad feeling is produced, the effects of which are hard to eliminate. In some cases blood is shed.

ANOTHER ocean passenger steamer (the Canadian Pacific liner Mount Royal) with four hundred persons aboard has vanished and, so far as known, not one soul has been left to tell the tale. About forty years ago the steamship City of Boston mysteriously disappeared from the ocean. In 1891 the steamship Naronic failed to reach New York to which port she was bound. The fate of both these steamers has never been known. They may have struck derelicts and sunk immediately, or may have been sent to the bottom by collisions with icebergs. Ocean traveling is beset by many dangers. Fire, fogs and icebergs are the sailors deadliest enemies, more so than the storms he encounters.

THE death of Rev. Dr. D. J. Stafford in Washington yesterday is sincerely regretted by many people in this city, not only among the members of the denomination with which he was connected, but by those of other creeds. Father Stafford in years gone by came to this city and lectured. He was always greeted by large and appreciative audiences. Dr. Stafford was devoted to his calling. It is said that he made $100,000 by his lectures, the bulk of which he gave away. A few years ago he was offered $50,000 to deliver a course of lectures on "The Passion Play." He declined the offer in order to give his undivided attention to his calling as a divine.

THE popularity of Governor Hughes with the republican masses is overflowing from New York not only into New England, but into States of the west that have been prematurely claimed for Secretary Taft. In Michigan the current for Mr. Hughes has set in so strongly that the White House camarilla have sought and found a reason for it in the activity and influence of agents of the sugar and copper trusts. But, asks the Philadelphia Record, what have the trusts to dowith the the republican voters of Michigan or with Governor Hughes? It might as well be said that the popularity of Governor Hughes in New York is due to the bookmakers.

SENATOR FORAKER will not submit quietly to his defeat before the Ohio State republican committee on Thursday and says he will not be governed by that committee's action and that the various counties are not bound by the call of the committee. He does not openly charge fraud on the part of the representatives of the highly moral republican party in his State, for he knows they would not cheat at elections? but he uses such strong language as to encourage others to believe that he was outrageously buncoed by these worthies.

DR. HENRY S. ATKINS, superintendent of the St. Louis Asylum for the insane, has been testing an entirely new course of treatment for mild cases of insanity among the women patients, it being nothing more or less than a Christmas shopping expedition. It is his theory that anything which occupies the mind pleasantly without causing too much excitement must be beneficial.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT says panic or no panic he proposes to prosecute violators of the law and break up illegal combinations. The whole machinery of the Department of Justice will be used against what is believed to be an illegal combination between the Union and Southern Pacific railroads.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., January 4.

Through the orders of President Roosevelt, the Department of Justice today fired a broadside of denunciation at President Ripley, of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, and other officers of his road, in response to Ripley's recent strictures upon the government and the court in the rebate cases, in which the Santa Fe was fined $810,000 at Los Angeles, Cal. Ripley's charge that the investigation was "a general inquisition" that the proceedings were "frivolous and vexatious," and that "they originated in illwill toward the company," is directly met by the Attorney General, in a report to the President. In his final summing up of the case, Attorney General Bonaparte makes the following grave charges. "It appears that the defendant corporation was accused by one of its former employes, whose enmity it had incurred by causing his prosecution for a criminal offense, of committing a long series of violations of the interstate commerce law; that its course, while these charges were under investigation, was disingenuous, obstructive and suggestive of conscious guilt; that it was indicted by the grand jury for 76 such violations upon evidence obtained from its own records, although, according to its statement and the testimony of its officers, a large part of the records which might have shown many further violations of law had been burned, the circumstances under which the destruction of these records was asserted being, to say the least, very suspicious; that, when it was brought to trial it professed to explain the rebates charged against it as compromises of claims by the shippers for losses, an explanation inconsistent with the entries in its own books and which it failed to sustain by corroborating proof readily obtainable from friendly witnesses; that some of the evidence it offered was, indeed, held legally inadmissible by the court, but this proof was, in fact, produced, and in passing sentence the court, in substance, pronounced such evidence unworthy of credit; that it was convicted by the jury on every count of the indictment, and its violations of the law were declared by the court to have been 'intentionally and systematically made'; finally, that its penalty was fixed by the court at only one fourth of the maximum, after a careful consideration of all the attendant circumstances, and with a view to preventing such intentional and systematic disregard of the law in the future."

Commissioner MacFarland will shortly propose legislation which will put an end to the Benning race track. He says he is only waiting for the decision of the Court of Appeals in the test case which is now being considered as to betting at the track.

Frank Wynne, son of the Consul General to London, was arrested in a Chinese cafe on Ninth street last night for disorderly conduct. His companion was Allen J. Willis, of Philadelphia. Wynne left $15 collateral for his appearance in Police Court today.

Secretaries Root and Metcalf had a long conference with the President today concerning the Japanese exclusion question and the recent negotiations with the Japanese government.

The reported acquisition of Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock as general eastern and southern manager for the Taft boom, has filled the Taft cohorts with encouragement. Hitchcock's acceptance of the offer has not yet been publicly announced, but there is a little doubt that he will take the job. If he does, it may be confidently predicted that new life will be instilled into the Taft campaign at once.

President Roosevelt's horsemanship test is made one of the regulations governmeing the appointment of persons in a civil life to be second lieutenants in the army and examination of lieutenants for transfer to the Artillery Corps General orders with President's amendment were issued to day.

Senator Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee, returned to town today. He will have a conference this evening with Senators Allison and Hale, also members of the commitee who, with him, have been charged with the duty of preparing a financial bill which will prevent a recurrence of the recent money stringency. Senator Aldrich says that they will not be able to report a bill for several weeks, and that the deliberations of the committee have not reached so definite a point that he can discuss them.

THE SEABOARD AIR LINE.

Following the action of Judge Pritchard, of the U. S. Circuit Court, in granting a petition placing the Seaboard Air Line Railway into the hands of receivers. Southern financiers are predicting a rise in the securities of that road. When it became known that R. Lancaster Williams, of Richmond, known to be affiliated with his brother, John Skelton Williams, former president of the road, had been appointed one of the receivers, a general wave of satisfaction swept through Richmond, the State and the entire South. Holders of Seaboard securities are gratified to believe that internal troubles of that road, which for several years past have caused conflict among the holders of the securities, are now on the verge of an amicable settlement. The receivership is taken to mean a great future for the road.

The first general notice by Receivers R. Lancaster Williams, of Richmond, Va., and S. Davies Warfield, of Baltimore, now in charge of the properties of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, was issued yesterday from the Norfolk office of President W. A. Garrett, of the Seaboard, who is still in New York. The notice announces the appointment of President Garrett as the chief executive officer for the receivers until further notice, and adds:

"Until further notice all tickets, passes and other forms of transportation issued by the above named companies, or either of them, will be recognized and accepted as the same were heretofore accepted by the said companies.

"All forms and records now in use by the several companies will be continued in use by the receivers until further notice.

"All moneys will be deposited to the credit of the receivers in the same manner and in the same banks or other institutions as the said moneys have heretofore been deposited, and will be disbursed upon vouchers signed by the proper officers of the receivers in the same manner as such moneys have heretofore been disbursed by the officers of the companies subject to the terms of the aforesaid decrees appointing said receivers."

Judge Pritchard yesterday entered the following order in the Seaboard Air Line Railway case:

"It is ordered that Messrs. A. C. Braxton, L. L. Lewis, Samuel Untermyer and Eppo Hunton, jr., be, and they are hereby, appointed counsel for the receivers heretofore appointed in this cause.

"J. C. PRITCHARD.

"United States Circuit Judge.

"January 3, 1908."

It is understood that Mr. Untermyer was appointed upon the suggestion and request of Receiver Warfield, and Mr. Hunton upon the suggestion and request of Receiver Williams, and Mr. Braxton and Judge Lewis were appointed by the court of its own motion.

Joseph Avelino, a shoemaker, was found dead today in Irvington, a suburb of Newark, N. J., with nine stab wounds in his body near the heart. The crime is supposed to have been committed by members of a Black Hand gang.

In recognition of South Carolina's conservative course toward the railroads, President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway, yesterday gave out an official statement at Columbia announcing a voluntary reduction to 2½ cents a mile in passenger rates in South Carolina. President Finley states, also, that an effort will be made to induce connecting lines to agree on an interchangeable mileage plan.

Seven men, picked up in a small boat in midocean after eight days of terror in their slight shell of a craft, almost starved and dead of thirst, their limbs swollen and their bodies covered with sores, arrived in New York yesterday on the steamer Hotham Newton and told a story of the wreck of their bark Germanic, the drowning of the captain and the disappearance of another small boat containing the other eight members of the crew.

By a majority vote of the nine clergymen who acted as a special committee of investigation, the Rev. William H. Shaffer, presiding elder of the west district, Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was on Friday night virtually adjudged guilty of the charges, which have been sifted in an ecclesiastical court for the last seven days. These charges were based on his friendship for Mrs. Martha J. Deichley, a widow, of Morgantown, Berks county, and the chief evidence of the prosecution was an unsigned letter of questionable propriety. This letter is said to have been fished out of the ashes in the cellar of the home of Mrs. Lydia M. Shaw, with whom Dr. Shaffer had rooms.

Edward S. Brown, for many years a leading lawyer, of Lynchburg, died yesterday, aged 90, after a few days' illness.

Jesse T. Bonney has decided to build a home for young girls in Norfolk, at a cost of $30,000. He will also endow the institution with $250,000.

Miss Dorcas Ballenger, daughter of Mr. Edgar Ballenger, of Round Hill, Loudoun county, and Henry Lickey, of the same town, were married Wednesday night in Washington. It was a runaway match.

A mass meeting will be held at the rooms of the Norfolk Board of Trade on January 16 to consider the effect of recent legislation which it is alleged is adverse to the interest of the railroads and the communities which they serve.

The Lumley-Dodson Company, incorporated, dealers in machinery supplies in Norfolk, went into bankruptcy yesterday upon involuntary petition proceedings filed against the concern by creditors holding claims upwards of $16,000.

Dr. George Henderson, of Washington, was fined $50 and costs by Recorder W. S. Embrey, acting mayor of Fredericksburg, charged with attempting to smuggle a dozen partridges out of this state, which is contrary to the state game laws.

There were five wagon loads of fresh fish in Fredericksburg Thursday—twenty barrels. The fish were mainly of the German carp variety and varied in size from five to forty pounds each. They were caught in Potomac Creek, Stafford, and the number and size of fish was an unusual sight in that market at this season. They were shipped to northern markets.

William Williams, living near Mount Gilead, Loudoun county, committed suicide early yesterday morning, at his farm near Leesburg. No cause can be assigned for his act, other than excessive drinking for the past week. His wife was a Miss Fletcher. She and two children survive. Early yesterday morning he went to his orchard with a shotgun. Placing the gun between the branches of a peach tree, he stood in front of the barrel and touched both triggers, the entire load of shot entering his throat and head. Death resulted instantly.

PROPOSED NEW TOWN.

At a meeting of the Citizens' Improvement Association of Jefferson district, Alexandria county, held last night at the Del Ray schoolhouse, it was decided to have Del Ray and St. Elmo incorporated under the name of Potomac, and the charter for incorporating will be placed in the hands of Delegate James R. Caton, of this city, and State Senator Thornton, of this district, who will be asked to use their efforts to have the matter passed at this session of the legislature.

According to the provisions of the charter, the officers of the new town will be: J. E. Supplee, mayor, G. W. Zachery, clerk; Richard H. Roberts, sergeant; Walter U. Varney, treasurer. Those named as councilmen are W. T. Emerson, W. E. Bidwell, H. H. Powell, Charles A. Campbell, J. V. Barrett, J. A. Carpenter. The above-named officers are to serve until the second Tuesday in June, at which time their successors will be elected.

The proposed town is bounded on the east by the Washington road, north by the Georgetown pike, west by the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, and south by Lloyds lane.

Conditions in Muncie.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 4.—Three battalions of the Indiana National Guards arrived here this morning and were at once put on patrol duty along all of the Muncie car lines. The Union Traction Company at once announced it was ready to begin running all of its cars and one hundred strike breakers, who arrived from Chicago today, were put to work. Troops were detailed to ride on the cars and ordered to shoot to kill if violence was attempted. The soldiers have forty rounds of ammunition each. People lined the streets as the cars passed to see the soldiers, but no violence was attempted. At intervals of a few minutes other cars were started from the barns and by 9 o'clock cars were running on all lines.

As a last effort to prevent using the soldiers gathered here, 500 prominent business men are now being sworn in as deputy sheriffs. Business men are doing their best to escape police duty. Among those sworn in was Rev. B. M. Nyce of this city.

The Japanese Question.

San Francisco, Jan. 4.—Japan will consider the exclusion of its subjects either from America or any American possession an open affront, according to retiring Japanese Ambassador Viscount Aoki, in an interview here today. The Mikado is willing, he added, to restrict his people's emigration, but when foreign powers seek to keep out those whose departure from Nippon he has sanctioned, the situation assumes an altogether different aspect.

Conditions at Vancouver were complicated today, according to dispatches from the Canadian city, by the arrival of 300 more Japanese and still greater difficulty is expected to attend the landing of 1,300 more said to be on the way from Honolulu. There has been no further fighting between the white population and the Orientals, but the situation is tense and the smallest spark may explode the magazine. The Japanese quarter is heavily patrolled to prevent an outbreak.

Jury Discharged.

Georgetown, Ky., Jan. 4.—At 4:45 this morning the jury in the Powers case came into the court room and through Foreman Price reported that no verdict had been reached. They requested Judge Morris to allow them to take a walk. Judge Morris told them they could go and report back at will, but that it was important that they should reach a verdict. At this juror Renaker arose and said he did not believe if they were kept together six months a verdict would be reached. But the court said to him that he hoped conditions would be changed today.

At 11:45 a. m. Judge Morris sent for the jury and after hearing their statements discharged them.

Standard and Vacum Oil Companies.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 4.—United States John R. Hazel today handed decisions in the matter of the demurrer of the Standard Oil Company and the Vacum Oil Company to indictments charging rate discriminating. In every instance the decisions were against the company.

Now that the decision is rendered against the defendants, the case will, in all probability, be tried at the March term of the district court, and it will be possible for Judge Hazel if the Standard Oil Company is found guilty of discrimination in the matter of accepting rebates to impose a fine of $20,000 in the 1,700 indictments against or a total of $34,000,000.

Cooke And Miss Whaley

San Francisco, Jan. 4.—In a bitter plea to be "let alone" Rev. Jere Knode Cooke, who eloped from Hempstead, L. I., with little Floretta Whaley, before leaving this city intimated to friends that if the continual "pounding" of himself and his girl companion is not stopped they may kill themselves. "We gave up everything for love," he said, "and know we must suffer. But we have been very happy, although poor, and all we asked was to left alone."

Verdict of Not Guilty.

Boise, Jan. 4.—The jury in the trial of George A. Pettibone, of the Western Federation of Miners, retired at 8:50 last night, after the defense had carried out its programme of submitting the case without argument. Today they returned a verdict of not guilty of complicity in the assassination of ex-Governor Frank Steunenberg, of Idaho.

The jury stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction.

Bomb explosion in Bank.

Kansas City, Jan. 4—Shortly after 12 o'clock today a bomb was exploded in the First National Bank building fifteen feet from the vault. A plumber, and a bank employe were injured. At first the bank officials said the explosion was caused by the natural gas exploding, but later it was announced that a bomb had been found. The bank is the largest and strongest institution in the city.

Denial from Mme. Gould.

Paris, Jan. 4.—Mme. Gould denies that she is engaged to the Prince De Sagan, yet the statement has not shaken the confidence of those who say the two will be married soon after the decree divorcing the former from the Count de Castellane, becomes absolute.

THE STOLEN HORSE

An Old Proverb With a New Application.

The woods are full of "so-called" remedies for Baldness.

You may call anything in creation a remedy, but to use them is like locking the stable after the horse is stolen.

Baldness and dandruff are caused by a germ—if you don't kill the germ the germ will kill the hair.

Scientists have labored with the problem of a preventive for Baldness for many years.

Newbro's Herpicide is the product of a modern idea, and will cure Dandruff and prevent Baldness because germs cannot exist when you apply Herpicide.

Herpicide is a valuable hair dressing and scalp disinfectant as well as a cure for Dandruff.

New York Stock Market.

New York, January 4.—The market wavered under increased supply of stocks from many sources, and although there was covering of shorts at times, resulting in moderate advances in a number issues, the end of the hour generally showed fractional losses, compared with yesterday's closing.

Charged With Wife Murder.

Harrison, N. J., Jan. 4.—Theodore Whitmore, in his cell in the local jail where he is "awaiting the action of the coroner" is today the central figure in the Passiac river swamp murder mystery. The body, having been positively identified by relatives, he now freely admits to be his wife Lena, missing since Christmas Day, but although under a severe fire of cross questioning all last night and again today, he sticks resolutely to the story that he supposed she had been in Schenectady visiting relatives and maintains that he knows nothing about her murder.

Harden Appeals

The employes of the Union Traction Company at Mariond, Ind., struck today. No cars are being moved. There was in sympathy with that at Muncie and makes the situation more serious.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm as a remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely's Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

He Knew Her.

The conductor looked at the thin man.

"Do you see that stout woman at the other end of the car, the one with the monkey hat?" he asked.

"I think I see the one you mean," the thin man responded.

"There, she's looking this way," said the conductor. "Well, sir, I admire that woman."

"You do?"

"Yes, I do. She may have a squint and wear bad fitting clothes and big shoes, yet I admire her."

"Why?"

"She knows how to get off a car the right way, and that's why. She's too stout, and her hair is ratty, and she hasn't any taste, but when she steps down from the back platform I never worry. I know she'll land all right. I'm dead sure she isn't going to sit down in the mud and ask me for my number. That's why I admire her. Here she comes now. Watch her when she gets off."

The stout woman came down the aisle and briskly descended to the street. And the conductor, with his hand on the bell rope, winked approvingly at the slim man.

Then the stout woman looked around. "Come, George," she called, and the slim man meekly followed her.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Simple Minded Kurds.

Some of the peculiar traits of the Kurds of Asia Minor are described by a traveler: "If it were possible to imagine two colors more distinct than black and white it would be possible to imagine two characters more widely differing than those of the Arab and Kurd. The pure Kurd is the most unsophisticated and gullible person in the world so long as you keep away from the material issues. His respect for a man who can read and write is almost pitiable. The Kurds are on the whole blunt and somewhat uncouth, silent and quite incapable of falsehood. If they do wrong—and they often do—they admit the fault in the simplest and most unaffected way. I had a muleteer who was honest, civil and incorrigibly idle. 'Did you ever kill a man?' I asked him one day. 'Yes; sixteen on the Khazat road when I was a deserter from the army,' came the reply in a voice absolutely unmoved. 'You were a robber?' 'Yes, but now, praise be to God, I am married and a muleteer.'"

No Chesterfield.

A Boston man was praising the late Earl of Dunmore.

"Lord Dunmore," he said, "was a good man. Tall and robust and supple, I can see him still with his short gray beard and his kind face. His only fault—a fault due to his aristocratic upbringing, no doubt—was the exaggerated value that he set upon correctness. He insisted in correctness in eating, in dress, in everything.

"At a dinner in Beacon street once I heard him tell a story about an incorrect self made man, or 'nouveau riche,' as he called him. This man was dressing one night to go out. His wife bustled into the room before he started to look him over.

"'But, George,' she said reproachfully, 'aren't you going to wear your diamond studs to the banquet?'

"'No. What's the use?' George growled. 'My napkin would hide 'em anyway.'"—New Orleans States.

Proof of Brains.

Mr. Travers, the famous New York wit, once met at dinner a pompous Englishman who was "doing" the States. He had letters a-plenty attesting his importance—letters from Gladstone, Dilke, Salisbury and Churchill. He had talked everybody tired before the dinner began, and Travers saw visions of a bad meal when he discovered the Englishman to be his neighbor at the table. There was never a stop in the fellow's tongue. When the oysters were brought on he began: "Now, it is a question as to whether or not the oyster has brains. Scientists dispute the idea." "T-t-t-they certainly have some," retorted Travers. "Your proof, sir!" challenged the Briton, eager for argument. "W-wh-why, sir, the o-o-oyster knows h-hahow to shut up."

Uplifting the Savage.

We have received the following spicy analysis of British civilizing procedures in Africa from a young Egyptian from Tanta, who shows dramatic aptitudes. The title of his communication is:

A TRAGEDY IN SIX ACTS.
Act 1.—The missionary.
Act 2.—Whisky and pale ale.
Act 3.—The Maxim gun.
Act 4.—A newspaper.
Act 5.—Cricket and football.
Act 6.—Death of the last aborigine.
Finis.—Band plays "Rule Britannia."

—Egyptian Standard.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1 00. Trial bottle free.
